I hereby agree with the temporary guardianship arrangements approved by my parent(s) and the school principal or his/her representative.

I agree to submit to the host family as guardians responsible for my care and supervision. I will respect them in the biblical parental role and will be obedient to all household rules. I will behave in accordance with a Christian lifestyle and attend church services regularly. I will communicate with my host family regarding school issues, including academic achievement and school discipline. I will support and encourage the communication of my host family with my parents at all times.
